

Joyce Goodman

January 20, 1944 - November 3, 2009

JOYCE GOODMAN, born on January 20, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland was called to be one of God's Angels to come to rest on November 3, 2009. She was the daughter of John Goodman and the late Dorothy Mae Goodman. Joyce had four siblings, Walter, Jerome, Michael and Francine who preceded her in death. Joyce was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was employed with Good Samaritan Hospital in Dietary. Joyce loved her family and many friends. Her dedication to family was very evident. She always made sure that they were taken care of, having a place to lay their heads, if only for one night. She spent countless hours ensuring that her family had not only what they needed, but in many cases what they wanted. She was truly the matriarch of her family and was highly respected and loved by all who knew her. She was a compassionate, trusting and fun-loving person who was always the life of parties. Her grand and great-grandchildren were her heart and joy. She loved to dance, work, and listen to her music. She was a very strong person who was determined to enjoy life and she did exactly that until she became one of God's Angels. Mourning her loss and cherishing her precious memory: her loving father, John Goodman; two children, Michelle Goodman and Mark Alston; two grandchildren, Sharelle Groom and Nichelle (Yummy) Groom; two great-grandchildren, Anthony Blakeney and Nyrea Blakeney; three special nephews and one niece that were more like her children, Anthony, Sebin, Benny and Lynn; a special and devoted friend, Paulette Hack; extended family members, Shantera, Taira and Jaquante (known as her little husband); special great-niece, Sabrina and special great-nephew, Frank; a host of other nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, family and friends.

“ *To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulation."
