

Joyce Marlene Bell

July 23, 1948 - June 3, 2006

JOYCE MARLENE BELL, daughter of Lucy E. Bell and the late Daniel R. Bell Sr., was born on July 23, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland. She had two siblings, a brother Daniel R. Bell, Jr., (deceased) and a sister, Rose Marie Carreras. Joyce attended Eastern High School in Baltimore and after graduation took courses at the Community College of Baltimore. On April 8, 1967, Joyce was united in marriage to Phil York. To this union three children were born-Phil S. York (deceased), Troy D. York, and Clayvon D. York. Joyce lived in Baltimore all her life where she raised her three sons. She was employed by the Social Security Administration as a Claims Clerk until a disability forced her to retire in November 1998. Her favorite pastimes were traveling, playing cards, Scrabble and eating crabs. Weekends would find Joyce the enthusiastic hostess of Pokeeno parties. At other times, she could be found helping to organize bus trips to Atlantic City and Dover Downs. In her spare time, Joyce enjoyed writing poetry, reading, and listening to music. However, Joyce's true passion was her family. There was a special place in her heart for her only grandchild, Justin. Joyce leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved mother, Lucy; two sons, Troy and Clayvon; two daughters-in-law, Kisha York and Lawanda Lawrence (Tootie); a sister, Rose Marie; brother-in-law, Francisco Carreras, Jr.; grandson, Justin Frazier; niece, Nicole Bell; and a host of wonderful relatives and friends. Joyce was truly a beautiful individual-she was kind and loving, with a heart of gold. She touched the lives of many and was loved by all.

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. One of God's wonderful promises is the resurrection hope. God's son Jesus Christ mentioned this at John 5:28&29- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on this loving promise from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Bell" S! May you all take comfort in knowing that others knows the feeling of losing a love one in death. Death is a heart break to all of us today. We are truly living in the last days today. Everywhere someone is losing some one in death. Many wonder ,is that God's will for mankind? The bible has true answer for you all. At Romans 5:12 we find the answe, please read. All is not lost for you and I, there is Hope. The resurrection by means of Jesus Christ. Wonderful indeed to know. Martha and Mary had joy in seeing Jesus raise their brother from death to living again. We can look forward to seeing many of our loved one too. John 11:44. I hope these few uplifting thoughts were good news to the ears. My condolences. Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Bell I extend my deepest condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in the past, and I can truly understand your pain. May God bless you and comfort you. What helps my family to cope is the sure hope of the ressurection, the means by which we will be reunited with our loved ones again. John 5:28,29 lets us know that all who are in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of the son of God, Jesus Christ and come out of those tombs. May the thought of seeing your loved one again bring you some peace and comfort as well as your cherished memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms. Bell. No doubt you enjoyed great times with your mother, sister and friend. One day soon the bible promises that death will be removed. All can look forward to a time when death will be no more. God's inspired word promises us at Isaiah 25:8 "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." May you find comfort in these endearing words##imported-begin##K. D Smith##imported-end##
