

Joyce Elaine Mitchell

December 24, 1946 - April 1, 2026

JOYCE E. MITCHELL, the daughter of the late Joseph H. Mitchell and the late Aline Mitchell was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 24, 1946. After a brief illness, Joyce departed this life on April 1, 2026.

Joyce graduated from Frederick Douglass High School and worked as a banquet server in different venues. She later retired as a waitress at Charlestown Senior Living Community.

Like mother like daughter, Joyce was known for the simplicity of love for others. She was the embodiment of selflessness and a safe haven for others. She helped with the Food Pantry community in a variety of ways. Joyce had a personal relationship with the Lord and was a longtime member of Bethel A.M.E. Church.

A parent never wants their children to proceed them in death; and for Joyce, losing her beloved son, Sean, weighed heavily on her soul. Also, preceding in death were her sister Cecilia, and brother Larry. Even in those heavy losses, her love for her family members never ceased. Joyce is survived by her loving daughter D'Lana, her supportive brother Rodney, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
