“ To the family: Sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Our family receives much solace and comfort from the Bible. The Bible answers our most disturbing questions and gives us a bright hope for the future. It assures us that one day soon God will do away with sickness, sorrow and death. He will bring our loved ones back to us in good health in a peaceful new world. Please notice Hosea 13:14- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" We hope this gives you great comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
