

Joyce C. Newell

January 12, 1962 - July 11, 2015

Joyce C. Newell, daughter of the late Beo Cooper and Glendora Solomon, was born on January 12, 1962 in Scarborough, Tobago. She departed this life on July 11, 2015 after a prolonged illness.

She received her education at St. Joseph Convent in Scarborough, Tobago. After her mother passed away, she was raised by Gloria Solomon-Charles. At the age of twenty-three, she left Tobago and came to Baltimore, Maryland. While here, she became a babysitter. After working with several different families, Joyce decided to obtain her High School Diploma and then began taking G.N.A. classes. Joyce later received her nursing license and she started working for Jewish Family Services. After working with Jewish Family Services for many years, she obtained a job at St. Agnes Hospital.

She married Euclin Newell and from this union, two children were born, Chantal and Johnathan.

Joyce had a smile that could light up any room. She also loved to travel. She made friends wherever she went. Everyone who knew her loved her dearly.

She leaves to mourn: her husband Euclin G. Newell; one son, Johnathan M. Newell; one daughter, Chantal G. Newell; one granddaughter, Aubrie J. Newell; one step-daughter, Clarissa; one step-granddaughter, Brittany

Newell; three sisters, Germinie, Marva and Cyslin; three brothers, Andy Derrick, and Selbe; aunts, Laura, Gloria, Linda, Jemma, Janet and Janice; uncles, Samuel, Mervyn; great-aunt, Thelma Forde; nieces, nephews, all of Trinidad and Tobago; and a host of other relatives and friends.
