

Joyce Vivian Dickerson

February 25, 1941 - March 24, 2010

On Wednesday, March 24, 2010, God in His infinite wisdom sent His angel of mercy to call his faithful servant, JOYCE VIVIAN DICKERSON, home. Joyce was born February 25, 1941 in Baltimore, MD to the late Randolph and Gertrude Aldridge. She received her education in Baltimore and Plainfield, NJ, where she moved to live with her grandmother at age 13. Later she married the late Lelois Dickerson. Joyce valued her relationship with the Lord and was a member of New Christian Memorial Church, for over 25 years, where she served as a senior usher. The matriarch of her family and a pillar of the community, Joyce was adored and highly respected by all. Well-known for her exceptional cooking, love for shopping and interior decorating, she will be truly missed. Despite having birthed one child, Joyce or "Ange", as she was fondly called, was a mother to many! "We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose." Romans 8:28 She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted daughter, Shana McIver; son-in-law, Michael McIver; her grandchildren, Tenae, Michael Jr., Michaëlle, Carita, Antwan, who she adored very much, and a very special and devoted granddaughter, Kahla McIver; one sister, Gloria Scott; one brother, Randolph Aldridge; one brother-in-law, Ronald Scott; one uncle, Charles Slappy, Sr.; two aunts, Lillie Jean Peoples and Eva Mae Wiggins; five nieces, Tina, Paulette, Rochelle and two of whom she raised, Neikeda and Rashida; seven nephews, Kevin, Robert Jr., Randolph III, Paul and three of whom she raised, Ricky, Shawn and Toby; three god-daughters, Lynette, Valerie and Rae; two special friends, Carmella and Verdell; and a host of other relatives and friends who all held a special place in her heart.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah Gods original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
