

Joyce Williams

March 18, 1938 - November 5, 2024

JOYCE ANN WILLIAMS was born March 18, 1938, to the late Willie Earl and Hattie Williams in Roxboro, North Carolina. On November 5, 2024, she gained her wings and departed her earthly vessel. Preceding her in death are her sister Mattie Williams and brother Theodore Williams; and four daughters, Diane Lee, Gwen Wiley, Theresa White and Lori Clee.

Joyce Ann was educated in North Carolina and later moved to Baltimore, Maryland. She enjoyed working as a barmaid for several years at the American Legion Post. Joyce then became a member of the American Legion Auxiliary where she served as Sergeant-at-Arms for several years. Joyce Ann cherished the times that she shared with her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren, dancing and partying. Can't you remember hearing her say "Say What?" It was truly one of her favorite phrases.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memory: four daughters, Darlene Bobbitt, Linda Williams, Lisa Holliday and Jacqueline McFadden; two sons, Henry Williams and Rodney White. She leaves two sons-in-law that she loved dearly, James Bobbitt and Walter Lee. Joyce also leaves 16 grandchildren, 43 great-grandchildren, 34 great-great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
