

J.T. Abercrombie

February 14, 1935 - October 14, 2008

J. T. ABERCCROMBIE was born on February 14, 1935 in Greenville, South Carolina to the late Isaac and Frances Abercrombie. He was called home to be with the Lord on October 14, 2008 after a brief illness. He was the oldest of three children to his loving and supportive mother and stepfather, Verdery McDaniel. His sister, Bobbie Ann Young preceded him in death. J. T. accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized a Vaughville Baptist Church of South Carolina. J. T. attended Sterling High School in Greenville, South Carolina where he was an excellent, popular and active student. He played trumpet for the school band and was elected president of student council. The trumpet, a gift from his parents when he was ten years old, was the key to a life long love and dedication to music. After graduating from high school in 1954, J.T. attended Tuskegee Institute on a scholarship. Majoring in Industrial Arts, he played for the school band and joined the U.S. army R.O.T.C. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in 1959. J.T. returned from the Army to teach in the public schools of Aiken, South Carolina where he met his devoted wife of forty years, Christine Robinson, who preceded him in death. From this union three children were born, Johann, Brian and William. He and his family settled in Baltimore, Maryland where he worked for the Howard County School District as an Industrial Arts teacher from 1972 until his retirement in 1996. A devoted, faithful husband and father, J/T. always put his family first in his life. He constantly shared his infectious laughter and wit with all those who were close to him. J.T. was a very generous and kind-hearted friend who loved to discuss politics, sports and especially jazz. He was a dedicated musician who wrote and composed tunes and took delight in performing original music, most notably as a trumpeter for a dynamic band aptly named The Jazz Exponents. Leaving to cherish his loving memory are: sons, Johann (Shirl), Brian (Trenia) and William (Loretta); a devoted sister, Mae Frances Cox; grandchildren Sydney Christine, Brian Jr., Maddox, Rani and William Jr.; niece, Joyce Ann Stewart; nephew, George T. Young; special friends Reverend Grady Butler, Donald and Celeste Burrell and Horace Shumate; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

Tribute Wall

“ J.T. Abercrombie

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. God Bless.##imported-begin##Theresa Manning##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ all of you are in my prayers. God Bless##imported-begin##linda barnhart##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. As you draw comfort from your precious memories, may you find strength to endure from the wonderful promise made at John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ May god grant us the strength to get through this. I love all of you Brenda and Family##imported-begin##Brenda Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ They say that time has a way of healing all pain and sorrow, I hope that the time that has passed is helping your family on the way to recovery, there are no words of sympathy that will erase your pain, the memories of your love one will always be with you, in time the memories will come without the pain and you will be able to focus not on your loss, but on all the joys and blessings you shared by having Mr. Abercrombie in your lives, may the God of tender mercy see you through this most painful time (2Corinthians 1:3,4). My deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of J. T. One day you have the promise that you can see him again by means of the promised resurrection. John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. May you find comfort and strength in this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mr. Abercrombie, though we've never met, I like to express my sincere condolences for your great loss. If I may offer a comforting scripture from the Bible, at John 5:28 and 29 which promises; Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection to life' may your family find comfort in GOD, word during this most difficult times; Thank you;##imported-begin##J Mitchell##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this loving hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ to the family of jt abercrombie my deepest sympathy goes out to you i want to leave you with a scripture found in john 5:28,29 where jehovah gives us hope and comfort and i hope it gives you some comfort.##imported-begin##J .GREEN##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family & friends of Mr. Abercrombie, I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your great loss. If I may, I would like to share a comforting scripture with you. Isaiah 26:19 tells us, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!... How comforting it is to know that our heavenly Father promises that we will see our loved ones again. Yes, they will live again. Please take comfort in this scripture for the days, weeks and months ahead. Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family and to Mrs. B. I only knew Mr. JT a short while but I know he was a wonderful man and that he was a blessing to so many. Keep the best memories alive and he will continue to live in your heart. God's blessings and His abiding comfort are extended to you. Love Misty and family##imported-begin##Misty & family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Isaiah 26:19 “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop in birth.” The Resurrection , by Jehovah God##imported-begin##TCousin##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Friend, It is always a sad occasion to learn that a loved one has passed away in death. Please be assured that our heavenly father, will never forget the love that they showed for his name. In fact, the bible comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. That means that we will get the opportunity to see our loved ones again here on earth. How do we know this? Please consider the following account in John 11:25. No doubt this is a familiar passage. At this point in the bible Lazarus has died. When speaking to Martha, Jesus said, " I am the resurrection and the life." But what was the context of Jesus' words to Martha? Well consider John 11:24 for here Martha says something very comforting to us. Here she expresses faith in the resurrection hope. In verse 24, she says "lord I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day". The problem was that Martha wanted her brother back now! Just like we would want our relatives resurrected now if we were talking to the Christ and we knew that he had the power to do so. What did Jesus do? He brought his friend Lazarus back to life! And where did Jesus bring Lazarus back to life? Jesus brought Lazarus right here on earth! Mary and Martha did not expect to have to die to see Lazarus again! And Lazarus did not remain dead in the "memorial tomb". Isn't that comforting to know that the bible promises to raise our loved ones back to life here on earth with us--those that love them? In fact, in John 5:28 and 29 we are told, "do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". No doubt Mr Ambercrombie will be amongst those that will hear the voice of Jesus Christ acting in behalf of our loving heavenly father as he brings back to life our dead loved ones. I hope that this has brought comfort to you and to your family. These passages have always comforted me when I suffered the loss of family and friends. Sincerely, Ms. Townes##imported-begin##T.Townes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I'd like to express my sympathy to Mr. Abercrombie's family and friends. Certainly time helps to heal the loss of one so dear; but God's Word comforts hearts in a special way. May you find strength in God's promises at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your love one. Death can be an extremely difficult thing to deal with, and understandably so, for the Bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that 'death is our enemy.' And acting as that enemy it claims the life of those closest to us. But God holds out something far greater than anything we could ever imagine. At John the 5th chapter, verse 28 and 29, we read of a wonderful hope held out for all those who have fallen asleep in death. I invite you to take a moment to meditate on the words recorded there, and may it bring you as much comfort as it has given me.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I would like to extend my sincerest sympathy to your family. While it is sad and painful to hear of the death of a loved one, we can find comfort in the words of Luke 20:38, which says "He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him". Isn't it wonderful to know that Jehovah God loves us so much? He doesn't think of us just when we are alive. He also remembers us if we should die. Jesus said that the Father even considers dead ones whom he loves to be alive! The Bible says that neither death nor life nor things here nor things to come will be able to separate us frpm God,s love. Romans 8:38,39. When you have a moment, you may enjoy reading these scriptures for yourself. Thanks for your time. Sincerely, Evonne Williams###imported-begin###Evonne Williams###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM