“ I am so grateful for the many wonderful moments I’ve share with Nani, as we like to call her. I adored her laughter, her kindness, her sense of humor, her dancing, and of course her delicious cooking!

She was always so much fun and always willing to try new things without hesitation. She absolutely adored her daughter Ana who took the very best care of her, pampering her in exactly the way Nani deserved. I am grateful for all of the wonderful memories I have of her and will always cherish them. Rest in peace Nani, and know that I will keep my promise to you. May God bless you and keep you.
