

Juanita Buie

December 14, 1932 - February 20, 2004

Juanita Elizabeth Buie, daughter of Ada and the late Lloyd Peays was born on December 14, 1932 in Baltimore, Maryland. Juanita was called home to glory, after a lengthy illness on February 20, 2004. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore. Later in life she was employed at a sheet metal company, until the business was permanently closed. Juanita met and married Floyd Buie, the love of her life. She attended David Memorial Missionary Baptist Church until she became ill and God saw fit to call her home. "Coosie" as she was affectionately known, loved to cook and eat good old down home soul food. She loved to shop and travel. Most of all she loved to talk on the phone for hours at a time with her family and friends. Juanita leaves to cherish her memory: a loving and devoted husband, Floyd Buie; mother, Ada Peays; daughter, Charmin Hall; four sons, Maurice, Marvin, Michael and Melvin Jones (son, Andrea Lloyd Jones preceded her in death); stepdaughter, Hattie Mae Buie; thirteen grandchildren, four great grandchildren; two sisters, Shirley Mae Bethea and Mary Henry; an uncle, Matthew Allen; two brothers-in-law, Major Bethea and Matthew Buie; three sisters-in-law, Maxell, Millie and Mini Buie; niece, Naomi Watters (John); nephew, Larry Turner; two daughters-in-law, Ester and Marsha Jones (son-in-law, Andrew Hall, Jr. preceded her in death); a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To the family, I like to express my deepest sympathies in regard for the loss of your dear loved one.I too have lost those I dearly loved in death and can feel the pain and grief that does along with death. What has helped me to cope is the comforting words found in the Holy Bible.Acts 24:15 tells us that there will be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.I know that this is a tender time in your life,so please take the time to read the cited scriptures about this wondreful hope.##imported-begin##Janice Mitchell##imported-end##
