

Juanita C. Gary

March 24, 1935 - November 7, 2002

Juanita Christine Oliver, daughter of the late John and Naomi Oliver, was born on March 24, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life after a long-term illness on November 7, 2002. Juanita, fondly known to those who loved her as "Ganny," was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. Juanita accepted Christ at a very young age at Saint John's A. M.E. Church in Baltimore. Juanita met her sweetheart Jesse Gary Jr. on Valentine's Day in 1952. Shortly thereafter they were married. From this union one son and three daughters were born. Juanita loved and lived life to the fullest. On any given day, you could find her either at the mall with her daughter or at her other favorite place, the slots. "Ganny" loved all of her children and children and her children's children. She loved to sing her favorite songs "Mona Lisa" and "Daddy Boy." She leaves to mourn: her three devoted, loving daughters, Michelle Taylor, Juanita Carter and Sharon Young; her one devoted son, Everett Gary Sr.; two sons-in-law, Kenneth Taylor Sr. and Floyd Young Sr.; a devoted sister and friend for life, Maxine Mallory; four additional sisters, Ruth, Shirley, Delores and Jackie; one brother, John Jr.; one uncle, Henry Bundy; eight grandchildren, Michael, Nicquel, Shania, Kenneth Jr., Floyd Jr., Nicholas Jr., Everett Jr., and LaKyra; twelve great-grandchildren; one godson, Tony; a devoted friends of the family for life, Renita Woods; and a host of other family, friends and relatives. MY MOTHER, MY BEST FRIEND Mom, you were the pillar and the strength of us all. You knew what you were facing and had accepted it. I give thanks for the special bond we had during the past few months; this will be with me forever. For you are an angel, so spread your wings, for you are and unforgettable Mom and best friend Everlasting love, Daughter, Michelle

Tribute Wall

“ Juanita C. Gary

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Sharon your mother will be missed by all. God bless you and your family. God will help you through this please hold onto his unchanging hand. Love you all. ##imported-begin## Patricia Young Randall ##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I understand your pain at this hour. Believe Mrs. Gary is in a much better place and she is no longer suffering. ##imported-begin## Brenda Johnson ##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To Michele, Winnie, Sharon and Brother. May God bless and keep you in his hands at this time of your lost. I know that Ms. Nita was a loving and caring Mom. Love you all. The Hawkins Family (Nate, Tina & Family) ##imported-begin## Patrina Thompson ##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM