

Juanita Cheeks

August 22, 1946 - January 30, 2009

JUANITA FLANAGAN CHEEKS, daughter of the late Rosalee and William Randolph Flanagan, was born on August 22, 1946 in Baltimore, MD. She departed this life on January 30, 2009 after a lengthy illness. Bunnie, as she was called in her childhood and early adulthood by family and friends, was educated in Baltimore City Public School System. As she became older, she fully embraced her given name Juanita. Juanita was a talented, intelligent woman who had a quick wit and an infectious sense of humor. She had many hobbies, but her favorites were playing video games, lotteries and scratch-offs, cards and most of all cooking. During her life, she had many jobs, but the two jobs that gave her the most satisfaction were being a house manager for Johns Hopkins Halfway Houses and a teacher's assistant for the Baltimore City Head Start Program. As a teacher's assistant, she worked with and mentored many young children around Baltimore City. As a house manager, she counseled women who were in early recovery from drugs and alcohol. She gave hope, honesty, strength and inspiration to many women. At the end of each of each shift she worked, she would tell the women her most notable saying, "Stay on your own path". Juanita married her childhood sweetheart, best friend and life partner Robert. Their love has lasted for over 31 years. In addition to being married, she was most proud of being a mother to one son, Robert and a daughter, Nathalia. Juanita was also happy being a step-mother to Aprile and a mother-in-law to Keisha. What gave her even more joy was when she became a grandmother to Montaz and Rasheed. Being a mother-in-law also gave her the privilege of being a grandmother to Destiny and Briana. Juanita has touched the lives of many and she will never be forgotten by those who met, knew and loved her. She was strong, beautiful, courageous, honest, fearless, and most of all awesome. Her memory will live on by those who loved her. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Robert Cheeks; two daughter, Nathalia Drew and Aprile Purvis; one son, Robert Cheeks; one daughter-in-law, Keisha Addison; two grandsons Montaz and Rasheed Cheeks; two granddaughter, Destiny and Brianna Addison; special daughter, Shedena Prince; four first cousins, Rosalee Weems, Delores Jones, Clara Carroll and Ralph Jones; and host of other relatives and friends.

“ I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to you for the loss of your loved one. Isaiah 25:8 lovingly reveals: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". Also, Acts 24:15 informs us "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from your memories together and from the Bible's wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family & Friends, I would like to convey my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. In Rev21:4 Jehovah God promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning not outcry not pain be anymore. It's only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again and Jehovah God will make this possible my means of a resurrection (John5:28-29; Acts24:15) to life on a peaceful earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to look to the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the family at this most difficult time. Turn to Jehovah at such times, because he is the loving God, the God of all salvation, and as Psalm 68:20 tells us; he alone knows the ways out from death. One day, he promises, that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his(Jesus's voice) and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life. John 5:28,29. Soon this wonderful resurrection will take place, and millions will be brought back to life. We are living in the last days; truly critical times hard to deal with, and when this violent, sad world is gone; all traces of sickness and death will be gone as well. 2nd Timothy 3:1-5, Isaiah 33:24, and 2nd Cor 15:26. One day, if we put our faith and trust in Jehovah, we will see our dead loved ones come to life again. May the precious memories you hold dear continue to comfort you in the days ahead. If you would like to know more concerning God's wonderful purpose, I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address. Take care family, and may Jehovah keep you in his love.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the death of your dear loved one, Mrs. Juanita Cheeks. The loss of one so dear is painful to say the least. I pray that you will be comforted by Almighty God's promise at John 5:29 and look forward to being reunited with her soon. Hold fast to your memories and keep the Bible's hope found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 bright in your heart because our foremost "enemy," death will be gone forever.##imported-begin##Brenda Curtis##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Cheeks' family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful and difficult to bear. I found comfort in God's promises at 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, God promises to do away with death and all the pain it causes. May you, too, continue to find comfort and strength in God's Word of Truth.-John 17:17.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
