

Juanita Dubose

March 31, 1944 - January 18, 2012

Our beloved Juanita, also known as Nita was born on March 31, 1944, in Sumter, South Carolina to the late Wiley A., Sr. and Hester Slater. She received the call from our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ to come home and departed this earthly life on January 18, 2012.

Juanita was educated in the public schools in Sumter, South Carolina. She relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where she resided until her passing.

On August 31, 1979, she united in holy matrimony to her friend and devoted husband Andrew Dubose, Jr. from this union two sons were born.

Juanita accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour. She was a member of the First Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church, under the pastoral leadership of Bishop Oscar E. Brown.

Juanita worked as a nurse-aide at Mercy Hospital for 25 years before retiring in 1994.

Juanita was a devoted wife, mother, daughter, grandmother, homemaker and friend who loved to cook. She displayed her love and ability to make everything "alright". It was not strange for the Chef Juanita to cook or bake a dish. She was in her element in the kitchen.

Juanita's greatest joy came on January 31, 2011 when her grandson Mason Dubose was born. She loved him and showered him with all the love that she had.

Juanita leaves to cherish her loving memories; her loving and devoted husband, Andrew Dubose, Jr.; her two sons; Richard Mark Slater, his wife Rhona and Andrew Dubose, III, and his wife Tamika; grandson, Mason Dubose; grand-daughter, Jasmine; her mother, Hester Slater; one brother, Terry Slater (Angela); one sister, Vanessa Hopkins and sister-in-law, Barbara Slater. Four special friends: Edward and Rosa Cauthorne, Pasty Smithwick and Jackie Williams, and her church family, First Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ *There was always magic in your touch, And sunshine in your smile.
There was love in everything you did to make our lives worthwhile.*

*We could find both hope and courage, just by looking in your eyes.
Your laughter was a source of joy, your words were warm and wise.*

*There was a kindness and compassion, to be found in your embrace,
And we've seen the light of heaven, shining from your face.*

*Your life was full of loving deeds, you were forever thoughtful of our special needs,
Today and tomorrow, my whole life through, I will always love and cherish you*

“ I wish to express deepest sympathy to the family on the loss of your love one. In times like these you need comfort and support from family and friends. One such source of comfort that I have personally benefited from is found at Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 25:8. I am sure you will benefit from these two scriptures.

“ Auntie Walk around Heaven with our Lord. To our family words can not express our hurt and pain right now but we serve an awesome God and we know he has all power in his hands. We also know that he puts no more on us than we can handle. Keep your head up as we will try to do. My brother and I send our prayers and love to you all. Love you all Kiahanna and Marquese.

“ My Dearest Auntie words can not express how I feel right now but i know God makes no mistakes. God saw a place in his garden and need a special flower so he looked around and said that perfect flower was you. To my family keep your head up and know that she is in a better place no more hurts and pains. She will always be with us. Remember all the good times that we all have shared with her. She is up in heaven next to God watching over all of us. We are all here for you and love you. (1 Corinthians 15:54-57 KJV) Death is swallowed up in Victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thank be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. She is gone but never will be forgotten.
