

Juanita Duffy

May 1, 1921 - September 29, 2011

JUANITA DUFFY, daughter of the late William and Mary Rogers, was born on May 1, 1921 in Jamestown, South Carolina. She departed this life on September 29, 2011 after a short illness.

She received her education from South Carolina. She later moved to New York, where she became employed as a Caregiver for numerous years. She remained a lifelong member of the New Emmanuel Church in South Carolina. In later years she attended service at her residence in the multipurpose room under Pastor Carol Ford of the Look and Live Apostolic Faith Church.

She married the former Norman Edward Duffy on June 27, 1955 in New York City.

Juanita touched the lives of many people with her smile and generosity. She made numerous friends whenever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was well known for her good cooking.

Juanita will forever be remembered. She leaves to mourn her sisters, Catherine Vice, Hermine Morrison and Bernice Taylor; two brothers, Cephus Rogers and Wilford Rogers; sisters-in-law, Mae Rogers and Marvel Rogers; brother-in-law, Sonny Vice; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. She was cared for by and loved Maniza Lindsey.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!
