

Juanita G. Dates

April 13, 1929 - October 10, 2002

Juanita Dates, daughter of the late Herbert and Louise Wiggins, was born on April 7, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. The lord saw the road was getting rough and called Juanita into eternal rest on Thursday, October 10, 2002. She was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Howard W. Dates II. Of this union three sons were born, Howard William Dates III, Allyn Burnett Dates and Myron Kermit Dates. Juanita was educated in the public schools of Reedville, Virginia. She graduated from Rosewald High School and continued her education at Virginia Union University in Richmond, Virginia. Juanita confessed her love for Jesus Christ at an early age. She was baptized at the Shiloh Baptist Church in Reedville, Virginia and was later received into the Catholic faith. It was always her burning desire to become a member of the Catholic Church. She was sponsored by her godmother, Peggy Day. She became a member of the St. James and St. John. Later she became a devoted member of St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, where she was and active member who served on many church committees. Juanita cherished her membership in the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She was also a Lector of the Word. She lived it and proclaimed it. Also well known were her characteristics of honesty, forthrightness, tenacity and determination. Juanita was employed at the Johns Hopkins Hospital. She was supervisor in the Medical Records Department when she retired in 1988 after thirty-one years of service there. She acquired lifelong friends. She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Howard William Dates III and Myron Kermit Dates; two grandsons, Duane and Howard IV of New Jersey; nieces, Everlyn and Rene; cousin, Aleatha; godmother, Peggy Day; godsisters, Jean Scott and Sally Bolling; goddaughters, Yvette Jones, Tracey Baker and Nilcia Peterkin; and a host of other relatives and friends. Her son Allyn B. Dates preceded her in death in 1998.
