

Juanita Somerville Glover

March 13, 1935 - February 9, 2011

Juanita Somerville Glover, the daughter of the late James and Albertha Somerville, was born on March 13, 1935 in Pensacola, Florida. She entered into eternal rest on February 9, 2011.

She was educated in the Pensacola Public Schools System and was later united in marriage to Woodrow W. Glover, becoming a military wife. She joined Good Shepherd Baptist Church in 2000.

Juanita enjoyed having her family around. She was known to wake up early in the morning to fry chicken and for many years prepared Thanksgiving dinner for the entire family. Juanita loved her long, colored hair and had every fashionable style. She was called Grandma by people in the community and served as the neighborhood's roving reporter. Juanita took talking on the telephone to a new level and had to have all of the modern gadgets on her telephone and the latest technology that went along with it. She served as her own interior decorator and rearranged furniture every week until she was unable to do so; then, she directed others to move it. Juanita lived her life to the fullest!

In addition to her parents, Juanita was preceded in death by her husband.

Juanita leaves to cherish her loving memory two daughters, Karen Williford and Tandra Phillips;four grandchildren,Tracey Glover,Antonio Phillips,Ashley Phillips and Angel Phillips;three great-grandchildren,Deshawn Glover,Dyquan Glover and Akin Robinson;two great great-grandchildren,Kemon Phillips and Z'Nyah Brown;two sisters,Delores Ballard and Carrie Milton;four brothers,Arthur,Donald,Calvin and Joseph Somerville;devoted nieces and nephews,Gerry Ballard,Karlton Ballard,Terrie Epps,Adrienne McLemore,Antoinette Ballard and Tasha Somerville-Collins;two brothers-in-law,Webster Ballard and Frank Milton;two sisters-in-law,Ruby and Sharon Somerville and a host of other nephews,nieces,relative and friends.
