

Juanita Hall

March 2, 1947 - July 14, 2015

Juanita Hall, daughter of the late Arcenius and Beulah Hall, was born on March 2, 1947, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on July 14, 2015, after a lengthy illness.

Juanita received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, and later worked in the electrical field. She enjoyed the remainder of her years as a homemaker, baking, sewing, and entertaining family and friends. During her earlier years, Juanita attended The Maryland Church of God and Christ, where she was baptized.

Juanita met and fell in love with a very special friend, the late Linwood Styron Sr; and from that union, one child, Joe Jr. Styron was born, Juanita would always greet you with a bubbly smile and a wet kiss, as she said 'hey baby'. She would feed you a hot meal on a cold day, and give you whatever she had, if you asked. Juanita enjoyed dancing, cooking, attending family functions, being a mother to all children, attending spending time with family and friends. She loved sleeping over at her baby sister Beulah's house (known to many as Dinky), and spending time with her son Joe, whom no matter how big he got, was always 'her boy' as she would say. Juanita was truly a sweet-hearted, devoted, devoted, God-Fearing woman, whose absence is deeply felt.

Juanita was preceded in death by: her father, Arcenius Hall; her mother,

Beulah Hall; her three sisters: Marie Hall, Alice McMillian, and Maggie Bryant; her brother, Eugene Hall; and her brother-in-law, Johnnie L. McMillian. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Joe Jr. Styron; her three sisters: Bernice Hall, Martha Dobbins, and Beulah Hall; her brother, Arjulus Hall; one sister-in-law, one brother-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends
