“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your mom. The Bible lovingly tells us that our "enemy death" will one day be destroyed. (See First Corinthians 15:26)There is a wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15- "And I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection." The Bible reveals that many will be brought to life in a peaceful new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(See Luke 23:43, Matthew 5:5 and Psalm 37:29)I hope you find much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
