

Juanita L. Pittman

May 2, 1927 - July 15, 2013

JUANITA PITTMAN, the fourth child of the late Harold and Viola Williams, was born on May 2, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. She quickly departed this life on July 15, 2013 after a lengthy illness. She was preceded in death by her four brothers, Floyd, Melvin, Warren and Vernon.

Juanita was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She married her childhood sweetheart, Ham. They had one son, Adrian, whom she adored.

She worked for various employers. Her longest employment was with USF&G from which she retired after more than thirty-five years.

During her early years, Juanita became a Christian and attended several churches. Eventually, she joined Trinity Presbyterian Church where she was a choir member, participated in fund raisers, and served on numerous committees.

Juanita was especially fond of arts and crafts, gardening, traveling and socializing. Those who knew her could expect a 'lengthy' visit at any hour. She was always the last to leave the party. Her laugh and smile were contagious.

She will always be remembered with love by: her husband, Herman "Ham"

Pittman; son, Adrian Pittamn; sisters, Shirley Blackwell and Jacqueline Williams; brother-in-law, Anthony Blackwell; and a host of other relatives and friends.
