

Juanita Pullen

July 16, 1943 - April 7, 2020

Juanita (Elliott) Pullen was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 16, 1943 to the late Wilbert and Matilda Elliott, Sr. She was the third child of ten born to this union. On Tuesday, April 7, 2020, Our heavenly Father with his amazing grace and infinite wisdom cradled Juanita in his loving arms and carried her to her Heavenly Home. Juanita attended Baltimore City Public Schools and in 1961, she graduated from Dunbar High School. Juanita accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was baptized. She was member of First Apostolic Faith Church where she attended for many years. On August 1, 1954, Juanita married Charles L. Pullen in holy matrimony. From that union, five children were born: Lisa, Eric, Monica, Derrick and Carlos. Juanita worked at Johns Hopkins Medical Records Department for a few years until she decided to become a full time homemaker. She enjoyed cooking a variety of delicious meals and desserts and taking care of her family. She enjoyed listening to Gospel and R&B music and her favorite singer was Jackie Wilson. She leaves to cherish her beloved memories :children Lisa Michelle Gamble, Eric Timothy Pullen, Monica Yvette Pullen, Derrick Anthony Pullen and Carlos Lamont Pullen (Linieka); Grandchildren; Ashley Charnee' Price, Veronica Marie Gamble, Malaysia Talesha Byers, Camy'rah Adrienne Pullen, Damani Cashea Pullen and Angel Logan Pullen; siblings: Bernice Dawson, Wilbert Elliott, Jr., Clint Elliott (Giovana), Gerald Bennett (late Troy), Rod Elliott, Vanessa Harmon (Rudy), Barry Elliott and Cheryl Elliott; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. Her sister Yvonne Pridget proceeded her in death.
