“ Judge, you were truly one of the class gentlemen to ever sit on the Bench. Remembering you as a state's attorney in juvenile not so many years ago! And I never forgot the day you came down from your 4th floor chambers to share the joy of son Roger's Super Bowl Ring with the Giants. You were so proud of the ring he had made into a necklace for Mrs. Brown. Truly, a great friend for many years, a deep family man with strong religious convictions. We will be together again one day to talk football.##imported-begin##Cary Carlton##imported-end##

“ Dear Pat: I'm still in the pew with you. For years we sat, stood and knelt - a few feet "apart", a part of St. Ann's heart. Smiles, tears, hugs - we prayed through fears and offered up cheers. Parallel benches - the Bar and the Pew - occupied well by both of you. Heaven's court now extends jurisdiction. The Honorable Roger W. Brown, Sr. shares new benediction - with Pat, forever partner in mission, and with children, Kookie and Roger, Jr. and grandchildren shining in tradition. And so all Saints of St. Ann, in holy communion, lovingly pray "Oyez, Oyez, Oyez! Pat, I hope the procession in church will stop at "your/our" area of pews. I'll be there in spirit with you. Peace.##imported-begin##Betty Lutz##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. God's Kingdom (Mat6:10) will end wars, sickness, famine, even death itself. No more doctors, hospitals, or disease or any kind. "No resident will say: 'I am sick"'. (Isaiah33:24) No more funerals, wakes, cemeteries, morgues, or the misery that accompanies them. Death, our relentless enemy, will be gone forever. God "will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". (Isaiah25:8) Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. “ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us: "There is going to be a resurrection". Also, Isaiah 25:8 lovingly reveals: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you reflect on this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
