

Judith Nicholson Parker

June 7, 1951 - December 7, 2023

Judith Maxine Nicholson was born on June 7, 1951, in Southampton County, Virginia to Pearly Nicholson, Sr. and Martha Lee Jones. She was preceded in death by Pearly Nicholson, Sr. She leaves to cherish her memory: devoted husband, James Parker, Jr.; two sons, Anthony R. Nicholson (Cheryl A.) and Kelly C. Bryant (Linda R.); one daughter, Nichole P. Bryant; stepdaughter, Alicia A. Parker (Terry L.); grandchildren Brittany L. Nicholson, Brendan A. Nicholson, Kiara N. Jefferson, Kelly C. Bryant, Jaeda L. Coupling, Kellina A. Bryant; mother, Martha L. Nicholson; six siblings, Jeanette Ford, Linda Collins (Larry), Gloria Gray, Phyllis Blackwell, Gale Jordan (Lionel), and Pearly Nicholson, Jr. (Sharon); and a host of beloved nieces, nephews, and dear friends. Judith's academic journey unfolded within the hallowed halls of the Richmond Public School System in Richmond, VA, culminating in her graduation from Armstrong High School. With an insatiable thirst for knowledge, she continued her intellectual pursuits at J Sargeant Reynolds Community College, Virginia Commonwealth University, Virginia Union University, and most recently, the University of Richmond. At the tender age of 12, Judith embraced Christ as her Savior at Cedar Street Baptist Church, alongside her beloved younger sister, Linda. Later in life, she found solace and purpose at St. Paul's Baptist Church, where she passionately served as a Stephen Minister. In this role, she tenderly organized and offered one-to-one, Christ-centered care to those navigating the tribulations of life. With grace, she skillfully navigated the intricacies of life, possessing an innate understanding of its dual nature and demonstrating profound compassion for those experiencing suffering. The tapestry of Judith's life was woven with the threads of family. In June 2007, she was wed to James Parker, Jr. in an intimate ceremony at their marital home. James and Judith enjoyed 16 years of marriage together. Judith epitomized the roles of a loving and committed wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, and friend. Remembered fondly for her radiant smile and uplifting words, Judith served as our sage, advisor, mediator, administrator, manager, and mentor. Her ability to connect with people was unparalleled; she never met a stranger and befriended everyone she encountered. The overwhelming outpouring of love today is a testament to the treasured relationships and connections she cultivated. Affectionately known as "Boogie" by the late Pearly Nicholson, Sr., she took immense pleasure in "Boogie"-ing to the rhythm of music. In her lifetime, she possessed an inherent sense of style, meticulously harmonizing her outfits with statement pieces and fashionable accessories. Judi took pleasure in moments spent before the mirror, elegantly styling her hair and applying makeup, a ritual she practiced even in the absence of a specific destination. Whether logging miles on the treadmill, strolling through downtown Baltimore to work, or engaging in yoga, breathwork, and meditation, Judith remained remarkably active throughout her life. Her professional journey spanned 35 years within the United States Department of Housing & Urban Development, where she ascended to the esteemed position of Account Executive Branch Chief, Asset Management, Multifamily Northeast Region. Upon retiring from this distinguished career, Judith established JNP Asset Management, LLC, and lent her expertise as a consultant to Multifamily Select Inc. Property Management, leaving an indelible mark on the agency and company.

The quote, "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:13), best encapsulates her beautiful soul. Judith generously shared her gifts, time, talents, and the treasure of her wisdom until her very last breath. Her legacy is not only one of professional achievement but also of profound compassion and unwavering commitment to others.

Judith Nicholson Parker was a kind and supportive neighbor. always ready to help even though she had a million things going on at the same time. When I told her husband James about some health issues because I've known them for 16 years she was the first person to offer our family spiritual inspiration. She will surely be missed in our little neighborhood. God Bless the family.

“ Back in the day, one of my best friends and I (Willie D), used to give Halloween house parties every year, which is where Judy and Parker met. Once that happened and they fell in love, we have always affectionately referred to them as "The First Couple" - even to this day. I will always remember her beautiful spirit and beautiful smile. To the Family: You have my most honest and sincere condolences.

“ I knew Judith for many years working at HUD. I can honestly say that every encounter was a great delight. You don't run across wonderful people like Judy very often, but her outlook was so positive and so inspiring, it is hard to relate adequately. We will all miss that joy she brought to us. Please accept my condolences. The world has lost a very special person.

My prayers and heartfelt condolences to Judith's entire family. Losing someone you care about and love is never easy; and my thoughts are with you during this difficult time. My friendship with Judith is one I will cherish forever. She will be missed more than words will ever say. She was such a special person; and I am so thankful to God for allowing our paths to connect. She made a huge difference; and greatly impacted the lives of many...of which I am one. I will miss her dearly.
