

Judy Lyles

April 1, 1945 - February 8, 2011

Judy Long was born on April 1, 1945 in Columbus, South Carolina to the late Roach Gaskin and Daisy Long. Unexpectedly, Judy departed this life on February 8, 2011.

She received her education in South Carolina Public Schools. Upon completion of her education, she came to Baltimore to reside and join her family. She was employed at several organizations working in nursing. Judy also worked as a private nurse up until her death. She took pride in her work and was a very caring provider.

Later, she married Samuel Lee Lyles.

She loved and adored family photos. Walking in her living room was like being in a gallery. Her passions were photography and cooking. She loved to entertain; cooking for family was one of her past-times.

Judy made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by all who knew her. Among her many nicknames include July-Lisa and Monk. She was always a true friend and devoted family member. In addition, she was instrumental in the raising of several nieces and nephews.

Judy was a member of the Church of the Redeemed of the Lord under the late Bishop Horace Ward. She was baptized and received the Holy Ghost and spoke of the goodness of the Lord.

Judy leaves to mourn, three sisters Jamecina Boulware, Reba James, and Geraldine Long, several nieces and nephews, two-brother-in-laws, a devoted and life-ling, Calvin Kimble and a host of other close relatives and friends.
