June 23, 1941 - June 13, 2023

JUDY BERTHA CAROL PROUT passed away suddenly on June 14, 2023. She was born on June 23, 1941 in West Virginia where she resided until graduating high school.

Judy relocated to Washington, DC where she held several positions within the FBI. She later worked with the United States Postal Service as a mail carrier. Judy later relocated to Baltimore City, a city she loved, where she set down roots as she obtained her Bachelor's degree in social work at the University of Maryland. She went on to work with the State of Maryland Department of Corrections as a correctional officer. She quickly moved up the ranks to Lieutenant with the Department of Corrections, from which she retired in 1993.

After retirement, Judy engaged in some of her favorite activities, going to the casinos, spending time with friends and family, watching westerns on television, and of course on-line shopping.

Judy was strong-willed and stubborn at times, but she had an enormous heart, kind soul and a wonderful sense of humor. Judy was generous and loyal to her family and friends, always willing to help others in need. She would say, "The good one does always comes back tenfold."

Judy leaves behind: two children, Ronald Grant and Danielle Grant;
