

Judyette Virginia Jordan

December 19, 1953 - July 31, 2003

Very quietly and peacefully on Thursday, , July 31, 2003, the Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, mercy, and grace, gently closed the eyes of our beloved Judyette Virginia Jordan, and she entered into her eternal rest. JUDYETTE VIRGINIA JORDAN, fourth child of and baby daughter of Anna Moore Jordan (nee Goode) and the late Edward Jordan, was born on December 19, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the loving sister of Edward Jordan Jr., Joseph Jordan and the late Fannie Mae Bynum (nee Jordan) who preceded her in death on January 4, 1995. She departed this life on July 31, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Judyette received her education in the Baltimore City Parochial and Public Schools. Judy, Bootey as she was fondly called, enjoyed music, dancing, watching television and taking care of her nieces. She leaves to mourn her passing: beloved mother Anna Moore Jordan; beloved son Edward Jordan; grandson Chey Jordan; one aunt, Jessie Satterfield; one uncle Wilbert Eddie Goode; great-aunt Ruth Mitchel; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
