“ To the family of Jules Irving Payne,

I am so sorry to read about the loss of your love one Jules. Death is like a hole in your heart, it's painful and hurt and the pain will not go away until that hole is filled, when you see your love one again.

" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." (Job 14:14-15)

“ We live 2 doors up frm your mom and step dad. I always admired how your mom doted over you. Your mother's eyes lit up when she saw you pull up to her door. Nothing like a mothers love!! I pray God comfort and hold your love ones through this difficult time. May you rest in peace. - Hatcher family

“ Jules was like a big brother to me, I never met Jules but the stories that Rose shared with me I always said he would make a cool big brother. My heart sinked when I read about his passing. On the otherside I'll be looking for my big brother even though he didn't know I was his little sister. Until we meet again!

“ God is the Creator of Life. The Bible call Jehovah God the source of Life. (Psalm 36:9 Acts 17:24, 25) The One who gave life to all living creatures is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who had died. Job 14:14,15 states he has a longing to resurrect our dear love ones.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
