

Julia Lee Curtis

September 14, 1925 - October 17, 2013

JULIA LEE CURTIS, daughter of the late Sallie Lovelace, was born on September 14, 1925 in Greensboro, North Carolina. God called her home on Thursday, October 17, 2013.

Julia lived in Norfolk, Virginia where she met and married the late William E. Curtis. Out of this union there were no children. She relocated to Baltimore, Maryland where she made this her home until God called her to her final resting place

Later in life she met the late James (Doll) Lang, who became her long-time companion, and he preceded her in death. His nephew, Ronald Lang Sr., made sure that she was well taken care of by making frequent visits. He made sure that she had everything that she needed.

Julia loved to cook and shop and was very giving, donating to several ministries throughout her years. She loved to fellowship with her good friends Harriett, Myrna and Mamie, Pastor Mr. and Mrs. Ross, and the Lang family (to whom she was known as "Auntie").

Julia leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted cousins, Emanuel Payton of Raleigh, NC and Irma (Patricia) Brown of Bronx, NY; nephew, Charles Sales of Greenville, SC (her sister, Ethel Lovelace preceded her in death); and a host of other relatives and friends.
