

Julia English

May 16, 1927 - September 30, 2009

Julia Mack English was one of fifteen children born to the late George W. Sawyer and Maggie Brown on May 16, 1927, in Winnsboro, Fairfield County, South Carolina. Julia better known as "Mack" departed this life on Tuesday evening, September 29, 2009; she quietly went home to be with her savor. Julia was raised in a very loving Christian home where a great emphasis was placed on Bible study. Family prayer and church attendance were strict requirements. She accepted Christ at an early age and she was a life-long member of Shady Grove A.M.E. Church in Winnsboro. Throughout the years, Julia along with her husband, Charles H. English and other family members faithfully attended the Annual Summer and Fall Revivals in Winnsboro. Each year, on the third Sunday in August the family attended Shady Grove A.M.E. Church, and the first Sunday in September she fellowshiped with her husband's at his home church, Sweet Prospect A.M.E. Church., also in Winnsboro. These events were very important to her. It was 1944 when Julia Mack Sawyer married the love of her life Charles Hughes English and they relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. From this union three daughters and two sons (Carrie, Arnetta, Dorothy, Charles, and Bobby) were born. They were married for 51 years. Julia and her husband were members of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church for over fifty years. She faithfully attended church every Sunday and served with the Nurses Community for twenty years. Mrs. English received her early education in the church schools of Fairfield County in South Carolina. Later In 1967 she graduated from Dunbar Senior High School in Baltimore and attended Baltimore Community College and began a career in 1972 at Fort Howard Veteran Hospital. She retired in 1994. Highly regarded and respected by her coworkers, friends and neighbors, Mrs. English was warmly regarded as mom, grandmother, godmother, auntie, and confident to many. She maintained a loving relationship with numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles. She had a winning radiant smile and presence as well as a forgiving nature; these beautiful traits will be greatly missed by her family and friends. In addition, her passionate and compassionate conversations about education, child-care, cooking and patience care will be missed as well. She leaves to cherish her memory, Three children: Arnetta Boyd, Dorothy Mangels and Bobby Alexander English of Baltimore Maryland; (Two children's preceded Mrs. English in death; Carrie Curry and Charles H. English) Two daughter-in-laws Mary English and Linda English of Baltimore, Maryland; Five sisters Maggie B. Green of Winnsboro, South Carolina, Sallie B. Green of Patterson, New Jersey; Mary L. Jones, Celia Jackson and Martha Woodward all of Baltimore, Maryland; Two brothers George W. Sawyer and John B. Sawyer of Baltimore, Maryland; Twelve grandchildren; Ten great-grand children; a host of loving nieces, nephew, cousin, aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. English's family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to thank Mrs.English for being one of the sweetest and kind-hearted people I've ever met. I lived across the street on Shadyside and in those few years I loved listening to her stories of her life and adventures. The world is truly a better place because people like her and I am happy to have known her in my lifetime. Farewell.##imported-begin##Stanley Robinson Jr.##imported-end##

“ To Dorothy and Family, I will surely miss your mother. Mrs. English was a very dear lady and vigilant neighbor. So many times when I would come home late at night and I would toot my car horn and Mrs. English would be right up in her window saying, "I see you Baby. I'll watch you go in." I am so very thankful for your mother watching out for me. She reminded me of my old neighborhood growing up when neighbors looked out for each other. Mrs. English always knew what was going on the block. She kept a good watch on my home while I was at work or on vacation. Mrs. English always had a kind word to say. When the weather was nice I would see Mrs. English sitting on her chair on the front porch enjoying the day. Whenever I would come home from work or church or shopping I look forward to seeing her pleasant face. Mrs. English always greeted me with care. I surely will miss seeing her. Your mother was such a stable of our block. The 1500 block of Shadyside Road will never be the same. May sweet memories of your mother comfort you. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. May the peace of God be with you always. Your Neighbor, C. Maria Stokes 10/07/09##imported-begin##C.
