

Julia Moore McPhearson

September 7, 1918 - June 30, 2013

The Legacy of Julia Moore McPhearson

“Take Me To The King” she said after a long illness. Our beloved Julia Moore McPhearson was called into a peaceful rest June 30, 2013 and was granted her angel wings. She was born September 7, 1918 to the late Rev. David Sr. and Mary Peachie Moore in King William County, Virginia.

Granny, Mama Julia, loved her family dearly and devoted her life to each and everyone. She was a great cook and made everyone’s favorite dish, no matter how many people. Mama Julia gave much of her love and energy caring for other family members through their illnesses.

She was a life long member of Rock Spring Baptist Church serving as a member of the choir and served as secretary of the Missionary Society for 21 years.

Many years ago, Julia accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Saviour. During her lifetime, Julia showed many fruits of the spirit—love, kindness, faithfulness, and gentleness. She showed a love for God, her family and kindness to her neighborhood and community family and friends. The spirit of the Lord was her constant companion and guide. Julia prayed daily and knew that God was her refuge and strength. There is no doubt that her life demonstrated a likeness in Christ which is now her merited crown of glory in heaven. The harvest of a life well lived!

To forever cherish her memories 3 devoted children, Dr. Jesse L. McPhearson, Jr. (Flora) of Sterling Heights, Michigan, Doris M. Artis (Lawyer) of Franklin, Virginia and Carolyn Branch of Manquin, Virginia; 5 grandchildren, Eric and Jerel McPhearson of Sterling Heights, Michigan, Patrice Jones (Charles) of Richmond, Virginia, Crystal Artis of Charlotte, North Carolina and Denise Hudson of Kennesaw, Georgia; 15 loving great-grandchildren; 9 caring great great-grandchildren; two sisters, Viola A. Moore and Gladys M. Pollard; sister-in-law, Florence Edwards; a host of collection of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, among them the RSBC Missionary Society.

Pam and Mike Hollimon - July 05, 2013 at 08:19 AM

“ I extend my condolences to the family of Julia McPhearson. May you find comfort and support in the Holy Scriptures, which assures us that the time will soon come when mankind's enemy, death, will be no more. Isaiah 25:8 speaks of a time when almighty God will swallow up death forever and tears will be wiped from all faces.

We will be able to see her again, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalms 37:9,10,11,29.)
