

Julius A Johnson

January 26, 1947 - February 13, 2007

JULIUS ALVIN JOHNSON, son of the late Kellis and Jessie Johnson, was born on January 26, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was one of seven children. He departed this life on February 13, 2007 after a short illness. Al, as he was affectionately known by others, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. As a young adult, he enlisted in the United States Army. Al was later employed at the Westinghouse Electric Corporation where he worked as a Maintenance Engineer for many years after which he worked independently doing home improvement projects. He was raised in the Sandtown-Winchester neighborhood where he made many friends. He was the handyman that everyone would call on when something needed to be fixed or repaired. Al enjoyed bowling, fishing, music, and was always the life of the party. He loved children, especially his granddaughter Daija, and children loved him. Al was a free spirited person who would give or help anyone that he could. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend. He was preceded in death by his two brothers, Clifton and Arthur Johnson. He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Tiffany Motten; four sisters, Joyce Agero, Peggy Johnson, Eileen Jones and Roberta Johnson; one sister-in-law, Shirley Johnson; one aunt, Willa Bland; a devoted and loving friend, Althea Faulkner; stepdaughter, Andrea N. Faulkner; granddaughter, Daija; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hi ! Johnson's ! I would like to send my fellow feeling to you all. It will soon be a year since Mr. Julius circle of life was broken. Imagine the happiness to be our when the dead are raised back to life in the near future. I am looking forward to that happening. Our creator is there when we are down and up with comfort for the soul, 2 Cor. 1:3. There is so much hope in the pages of the bible such as Romans 15:4. I truly hope these thoughts will proved to postive and uplifting to read.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Death is so heartbreaking. It saddens us like no other event in our lives. Very soon though, Almighty God promises to end death and sorrow forever. Rev.21"3,4 lets us know that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." May those thoughts from the bible bring your family the comfort you need to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
