

Julius McDonald Waddy

November 11, 1926 - October 12, 2018

“In lieu of flowers, you may donate to the American Kidney Fund in his honor/memory”.

Julius M. Waddy, affectionately known as “Jack,” son of the late Ernest and Anna Smith, was born on November 11, 1926 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on October 12, 2018. He was also raised by his aunt, the late Seletha Waddy, and later, his grandparents in Kilmarnock, VA.

Jack received his education from A. T. Wright School in Kilmarnock. He was drafted in 1945 in the U.S. Army, where he served in World War II. He was honorably discharged in 1946. After his discharge from the Army, Jack resided in Baltimore with his mother and aunt, the late Christabel Lance. He was employed with Bethlehem Steel, Sparrows Point. He retired after 37 years of service.

It was in Baltimore where he met his soul mate, Dorothy Bonner Waddy. They were joined in Holy Matrimony for 52 years. Both were members of Wayland Baptist Church.

Jack was loved by many and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He will sincerely be missed. He loved his wife and was devoted to her care and well being. He lived for his “Dottie.”

Jack was pleased with his life and he praised/thanked God daily for the blessings bestowed upon him. He was a man of principle, integrity and good character. He enjoyed discussing past and current events, and often times would challenge your opinion on social issues, politics or the Orioles performance. He was known as the “great debater,” or “the Professor” as his wife would affectionately call him. Overall, he had a heart of gold and was a generous human being. He imparted wisdom, knowledge and humor to the young and the old based on his life experiences.

During Jack’s health challenges he was cared for by his niece and nephew, Cynthia and Herman Petion. He was also assisted in care by Nicole Redds, whose longevity of service to the Waddy’s transitioned to friendship and family.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Dorothy; brother-in-law, Earl Bonner, cousins, Alise Deleaver, Seleda Dowling; a host of nieces, nephews, other cousins and friends.

“ My sincerest sympathy to the family. Jack called me his daughter and I always introduced he and Dot as my parents. I fondly recall his funny stories about work. He knew how to get everywhere. If you needed directions, all you had to do was call Jack. I loved to hear him laugh. He will be missed. Rest in power Jack. Love you!
