January 2, 1925 - November 21, 2001

Junius (A.K.A. Junior) Brown, son of the late Sam and Florence Brown, was born on January 2, 1925 in Farmville, Prince Edward County, Virginia. He departed his life quietly on November 21, 2001. After moving to Baltimore in 1942, Junior attended the Dunbar High Night School. He later became employed by the City of Baltimore, he worked for the city for five years before relocating back to Virginia. In 1958, he returned to Baltimore and was employed by The Horstmeier Lumber Company. He worked there for many years until his retirement in 1987. Junior was a dedicated employee. After he retired, he returned to the lumber company for one year (without pay) to assist the new employee taking his place. Junior was a quiet person who stayed to himself and minded his own business. He would sometimes give good advice to one of his many nephews. He would say, "Get a good job with benefits and plan your future." Those who remain to cherish his memory are: three brothers, Henry Brown, Branch Brown and Wallace Brown; three sisters, Helen Washington, Mary Davis and Ruby Brown; three sisters-in-law, Patricia Brown, Marylizzie Brown and Mary R. Brown; one brother-in-law, Richard Brown; and a host of nieces and nephews
