

Justine Smith

November 7, 1935 - April 12, 2017

Born on November 7, 1935 in Baltimore, Maryland, JUSTINE SMITH, the fifth child of the late Mildred and John Williams departed on Wednesday, April 12, 2017.

Justine was educated through Baltimore City Public Schools and finally worked as a dedicated employee of the Baltimore City Public Schools system as a Truancy Officer.

Justine attended Community Baptist Church when she could. However, when she could no longer walk, she discontinued attending services. She always prayed at home and talked about "Cousin Jessie's Church."

Justine was married to the late Arthur L. Smith for 53 years. She enjoyed sewing, interior design, flowers/plants and animals. She loved her siblings, cousins, nieces and nephews and put her time, money and energy into sharing their "life's challenges and joys."

She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Vanetta T. Nelson (Gary Nelson, son-in-law); four grandchildren, Gibran, Mandela, Biko and Alani (step granddaughter); one great granddaughter Asia, two sisters, Aszlee Coleman and Ellen Williams, one cousin-in-law, Betty Smith and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. A special mention to Cheryl Williams, niece, who Justine took as a daughter.
