

Kadell Maurice Campbell

August 27, 1998 - May 27, 2021

Kadell Maurice Campbell was born on August 27, 1998 to Candace Campbell and Samuel Overton. Kadell departed this life May 27, 2021 – just three months shy of his twenty third birthday - life gone too soon.

Kadell received his education in Belmont, Trinidad as well as the Baltimore City School system.

Kadell was very gifted and always wanted to broaden his horizons, Kadell enrolled in the West Virginia Job Corps where he received training in brick laying, fire rescue, CPR and even obtained his drivers license. Kadell was recently enrolled in CDL School. Everyone was proud of the man he became, especially his mother.

Kadell met Emily Grimes. They became great friends and fell in love , As a result of this relationship, three beautiful gifts were created, Arrielle, Aniyah and baby Alayah (on the way).

Kadell enjoyed life as a whole, but had a passionate love for Naruto, Transformers, football, wrestling, fast cars, but above all motor bikes.

Kadell was protector, provider, a humanitarian, an immaculate role model and great leader who had set the bar high and was greatly unmatched. He will be missed.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories: three daughter, Arrielle, Aniyah, and Alayah; fiancé Emily: parents, Candace and Samuel; four sisters, Kaleace, Ka'Nayla, Iesha and Niesha: four brothers, Daniel, Kavon, Samuel and Elijah; two grandmothers Janet and Bett; nephew, Khourey; three aunts, Genelle, Renell and Neka; six uncles, Paul, Hendron, Ricardo, Wayne, Antnio and James: two godmothers, Tia and Sharon; godfather, Dominick; six god brothers, Katrell, Glenn, keyon, Paul, kendall and Kamari; the god sisters, Sharon, A'chiyah and Khamirryah; his mudd brothers, Kenny, Travis, Darrell and host of cousins and friends.
