

Kamlaben Doshi

February 23, 1927 - April 8, 2021

In loving memory of Mrs. Kamlaben Manilal Doshi.

She went through a lot of hardships in her early age, as she was widowed at the age of 20 and had to raise two kids on her own. But she always kept her faith in Jainism and dharma was an important factor in every step of her life.

She is survived by two children, six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She was blessed with a loving family and had a fulfilled life.

She is an inspiration to us all and will be deeply missed.

“ Dear Jyotsnaben, Jyotibhai, Sonal, Parag, Ketan and FAMILY,
It is so hard to say goodbye. It is more difficult when you do not want to say goodbye. It is difficult to lose a loved one, and it is particularly difficult to lose a mother.

Person who gave us memories became a memory! She was BAA to so many of us. Since Raju never had an opportunity to see his mother or mine, his face used to glow whenever he was around Baa.

I always admire Baa's caring and selfless nature. She had so much love to give and share. Baa's kindness was contagious and her memory will live on forever. Baa was THE BEST mother. Baa has touched so many lives - she sure did Raju's and mine! Baa was larger than life! Not only her life but her SAMAADHI MARAN is also an inspiration to us! Though we all understand where there is a life, there is a death, but when that happens, it makes us sad. I wish I had a word to make it easy. Her funeral was a great tribute!
Baa will live in our heart.

With deepest condolences

Our deepest condolences on Pu.Ba's departure from her worldly life. Her Aatma got a step close to being Paramatma. Her presence will be missed but we are sure her spirit and her blessings will continue to shower from above on all of you throughout your lives and beyond. It was inspiring for us to know more of her life and how faith & religion continued to provide her peace & serenity until her last breath.
