“ Hello Foster's !I would like to extend my comdolences to the family of Kareem. Losing a young person like Kareem leaves a huge space open. The bible helps us get through this hard time in our lives. You can find comfort in our heavenly father as 1Cor.1:3 say. The ressurection hope can carry you through.Death will swallow up forever as Isa.25:8 tell us. That will be a great time for all of us never having to worrying about dieing. Young people are our future,Kareem had so much to live for ,living for twenty -three is a start for all the wonderful things our heavenly father had in stores for mankind. Living forever. I look forward to that time and I know you all are too . I hope these uplifting thoughts have been of some support to you all. Lillian.##imported-begin##lillian##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Kareem, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Be assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Kareem Lewis Foster. I did not know him personally, however, I have experienced the lost of a loved one. And so, I know how you may be feeling at this moment. With that said, I feel strongly led to invite the survivors of Kareem to my home church: Set the Captives Free in Woodlawn. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry (2nd/4th Mondays @7p) called Life after Loss. It has helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. Lastly, if anyone of you would like prayer, someone to talk/cry to or anything else, please email me. May God Bless each of you! Your Sister in Christ.##imported-begin##Angie##imported-end##
