

Karen Studifin Fleming

September 27, 1959 - June 19, 2019

Karen Studifin Fleming, 59, went home to be with the Lord on June 19, 2019. She was preceded in death by her parents, Barbara and George Allen. She was baptized at St. Paul's Baptist Church at an early age and remained a member until her death. She was educated in Richmond Public Schools, graduating from John Marshall High School. From there she was a loyal employee of Bell Atlantic (Verizon) for 20 years before retiring to be a stay at home grandmother. Later in life, she restarted her pursuit of higher education at John Tyler Community College. Karen graduated in May of 2019, with an Associate's Degree in Business Administration.

Karen possessed the ability to positively impact the lives of everyone she encountered. Wherever she went, her smile was able to brighten the room. Karen was extremely family oriented and in between her naps, she was always organizing the next family function. Karen was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and a friend to so many. She leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband, William Fleming III; daughter, Karey Calhoun (Jonathan); sons, William IV (Patrice), Dr. Damarius Fleming; five grandchildren, Kayjon Fleming, Harmony Wilkerson, Jonathan Calhoun, Kameron Calhoun, and Elliotte Fleming; sister, Rev. Deborah Bradshaw (William); niece, Nicole Bradshaw; aunts, Catherine S. Mankin and Mary Bivens; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My cousin Karen was a very nice person to have around. She was like family to me. I just wanna say from the bottom of my heart that I'll miss you Karen. It was very shocking to hear that you were gone. But I will always remember you in my thoughts and prayers. Hopefully we'll see each other again someday. Me and my mother would like to pay our respects to you and the family and we wanna thank you for welcoming us with open arms.

Love,

From your cousin, Devin Williams
