“ Dear family of Karen, I'm so sorry to read of your great loss of your loved one. To her children, put faith in God's promises of a peaceful, happy world that is soon coming, in which such things as violence, sickness, and death will be a thing of the past. 2nd Peter 3:13 talks of a new earth in which righteousness is to dwell. In that new world the dead will come back to life, because this was God's purpose from the beginning. As Isaiah 45:18 tells us, he didnot create the earth simply for nothing, but created it to be inhabited. Rest assured you will see your mother again, if you put faith in his word, and keep his laws. Girls, I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address for a bible discussion of God's wonderful promises , and how you can benefit from them. I am a bible teacher, and I can identify with your pain, because my son also was born in 1967, and he to died over 12 years ago. So contact me please, and I can share with you the wonderful blessings that will shortly take place, and the sure hope of being with your mon again. I hope to hear from you, and may you be comforted and strengthened to go on.###imported-begin###

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. It is especially sad when death overtakes someone so young. The Bible teaches at John 5:28-29 that all those in the memorial tombs will come by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth. May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm 55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
