

Karen L. Smithery

October 13, 1957 - January 22, 2005

Karen Leatrice Smithery was born October 13, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the fourth child of Jeff and Catherine Smithery. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School system. She liked playing cards, dancing and socializing with people. This made her at home with people and they liked being around her. She had an infectiously pleasant personality. While never overbearing or pushy, you knew before long if she were in the room. Her laugh was unmistakable and she loved to joke with people. She was easy going and slow to anger or pass judgement. These attributes she possessed will be greatly missed. Karen received Christ at an early age and was baptized at New Psalmist Baptist Church. Her acceptance of Him could easily be seen through the joy she brought to anyone around her. After a lengthy illness, Karen passed on from this life and into God's care on January 22, 2005. She leaves behind to cherish her memory: sister, Elva Smith; brother, Jeff Smithery; sister-in-law, Kit Smithery; niece, Shelva Smith-Graham; nephew, Jeff Smithery, Jr.; a devoted friend, Edward Singleton; and a host of other family members and friends. She will be missed.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It may seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises at Revelation 21: 3, 4 to "wipe sickness, death, outcry, and pain away". He also, promise to "resurrect" our dearly beloved ones into a beautiful paradise-(John 5: 28 & 26/ Luke 23: 43). Yes, your love one will not forgotten.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
