

Karen Veronica Jennings

May 2, 1962 - May 4, 2003

Karen Veronica Jennings, daughter of Mary A. Jennings-Jones and the late Namon Jennings was born on May 2, 1962. She departed this life on May 4, 2003 at Harbor View Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland. She attended the Guilford Elementary School and Roland Park Jr. High and graduated in 1980 from Baltimore City College, all in Baltimore, Maryland. Karen worked a short time in private nursing after which she became ill and was disabled for fifteen years. Karen was loving and kind to all, always willing to help her brothers and others whenever possible. She dearly loved her two girls Shadae and Mariah. Her friend Ernie stayed by her side to the end. Karen often talked about going to the Kingdom Hall and taking her two girls with her. However her health prevented her from doing anything she wanted to do. Only Jehovah knows her heart's intentions. We will miss her very much. Karen leaves to mourn her passing: her two daughters, Shadae Bailey (age 4) and Mariah Bailey (age 1½); her mother, Mary A. Jennings-Jones and stepfather, Arthur Jones, Jr. of Charlotte C. H., Va.; three brothers, Alexander Jennings of Boston, Mass., Byron Jennings and James Jennings of Baltimore; five aunts, Margaret Morton and Ruby Shuford of Charlotte C. H., Va., Esther Bridges (Reginald) of Richmond, Va., Agnes Jenkins and Louise Alston of Baltimore; two uncles, John Jennings of Washington, D. C. and Conwallis Jennings of Baltimore; a dear friend, Ernie Bailey; a host of nieces, nephews, others relatives and friends.

“ To the family: Sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort in the Bible, especially in times of great loss. The Bible tells us that one day soon, God will get rid of death and bring our loved ones back to us in good health. Please notice this at Hosea 13:14- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" It is our hope that you find as much comfort in this verse as we have.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
