

Karen Yvette Lee

August 24, 1959 - June 15, 2003

Karen Yvette Lee, beloved daughter of the late Whitney, Sr. and Nannie Lee, was born on August 24, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. During the morning hours of June 15, 2003 at Johns Hopkins Bayview Hospital, after a lengthy illness, God called Karen home. Karen received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools after which, she attended Bay College, Dundalk Community College and Sojourner Douglas College. June 1996, Karen became employed by the Johns Hopkins Bayview Hospital where she remained employed until the end. As a young child, Karen was baptized at the St. Paul Church of God in Christ Jesus, Apostolic where she continued to attend during her days of good health. Karen was loved dearly by all those she met and worked with. Co-workers say that she was a great practical joker, witty, always had a smile on her face and would do anything for you. You could always count on Karen lending an ear, support and words of encouragement. Karen was preceded in death by three brothers, the late Joseph Lee, Ernest Lee and Whitney Lee, Jr. Karen leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Robert Lee Wyatt III; one sister, Vivian Lee Bailey; two sisters-in-law, Loretta Lee and Kathleen Lee; ten nieces, Angela Denise Bailey, Deborah Brown, Brenda Bellamy, Aurelia Foster, Loretta Lucas, Cheryl Hagens, Veronica Lee, Cynthia Harris, Regina Lee, and Wanda Lee. In addition, she leaves three nephews, Nathan Lee, Tyrone Lee, and Winston Lee; close friends, Connie Carter, Stacey Davenport and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To The Family of Karen Yvette Lee: It is with sympathy that I write. Death is such an enemy of life, and in this world we all must face it one day. I have found a very comforting passage found in the Bible at Acts 24:15, and it states: "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". I find this passage encouraging, knowing that one day, I will see my loved ones again. I hope that this passage brings solace to the family. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ I will miss Karen's smiling face in the mornings. Your mother was one of the first people to make me feel welcome on the DOM. She always had a smile on her face, even when she was sick. She will surely be missed at work. Rob you were truly blessed to have had her as your mom. God bless you Rob in your time of sorrow. ##imported-begin## Janice Witherspoon ##imported-end##

“ I cant express the effect Mrs. karen had on everyones life at the hospital. She was and still is a special person. That's a great honor to carry, cause being special is a hard job to up to. Mrs. Karen did it with no problem. She'll always have a special place in my heart. Her smile is what I'll miss the most. Remembering you always with the greatest pleasure. “ May your fondest memory bring you the peace and comfort your mother would wish for you. It is hard to lose a parent that you have so much love for. I hope that it may help you to know that others understand and are thinking of you. There are no words to ease your sorrow, only the hope that warm memories will comfort you in your tomorrows.##imported-begin##Mrs. Stephanie Savage##imported-end##
