

Kashyia I. Colleton

January 6, 2007 - January 6, 2007

Kashyia Ivyania Colleton, daughter of Derrick T. Colleton and Valarian Anderson, was born on Saturday, January 6, 2007 at 10:37 am at The Johns Hopkins Hospital. Unable to wait for her entry to make her grand day view, she entered into our lives after a 21-week term. She departed to go home and be with the Lord at 12:57 pm. Even though Kashyia's life was short lived upon this earth, she left her mark in the lives of all those that were blessed to be in her presence. Kashyia Ivyania Colleton leaves to mourn: her parents, Derrick Tavon Colleton and Valarian Nicole Anderson; Grandparents, James Gray, Delores Anderson, Arnold and Pamela Colleton Sr.; Great-Grandparents, Jean Edith Ray, Richard and Dorise Boyd; Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your precious baby in death. This was truly not God's purpose. He created Adam and Eve to live forever in perfect health, and the same for their offspring, but sadly they lost out on paradise, because of their disobedience. Yet Jehovah is a merciful God, and all who want to do his will can still receive everlasting life in paradise conditions, and have their loved ones back with them again in the resurrection God has promised. Acts 24:15 lets us know that there will be a resurrection. May it comfort you to know that you can be reunited with your precious baby again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“What a terrible, terrible tragedy to lose a child. Children are very precious to our God Jehovah and this is certainly not something that he takes delight in. Death takes these precious ones from us. The Bible tells us that death is the enemy, but we never get used to. However, the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, “the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. God has promised that those in his memory will be resurrected and we can be reunited with them on a paradise earth. This promise from Jehovah God has given many comfort and hope. I pray that you and your family will also.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
