

Kathen L. Adams

April 26, 1932 - March 12, 2003

Kathen Lucille Adams, daughter of the late Chalmus and Martha Broadnax, was born on April 26, 1932 in Reidsville, North Carolina. On March 12, 2003 Kathen passed away after a long illness. Kathen received her education in Reidsville North Carolina. She moved to Baltimore as a teenager. Kathen worked for a short time at Macy's Department Store. Kathen loved her children and her grandchildren, so she stayed home to see that they were properly cared for. She loved reading her bible, cooking and fishing. Kathen was "Ma" to her children, "Granny" to her grandchildren and was a mother to many who knew her. Kathen, being the oldest member at the Philadelphia Baptist Church was the mother of the church. During her illness she remained steadfast and loyal and looked forward to the day when the Lord would wipe away all her tears and pain. She leaves to mourn: one sister, Ada Moore of Reidsville, North Carolina; three sons, James, Cleveland and Willie Adams; two daughters, Deborah and Rezella Adams; eighteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Virginia Johnson, a niece who was constantly at her side; and Leroy Broadnax, a nephew who was thought of as a son, also survives her. Kathen has a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends (Mrs. Judy Johnson) who will truly miss her.
