

Katherine Thompson (Mother Kat)

November 3, 1925 - April 18, 2003

Katherine Thompson was born on November 3, 1925 in Warsaw, Virginia to the late Jenny Kelly and John Thompson. After a lengthy illness, she boarded her ship to Jordan on "Good Friday," April 18, 2003 at Maryland General Hospital. Katherine was educated in the public schools of Richmond County, Virginia. Katherine first confessed Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the Second Baptist Church in Warsaw, Virginia. In 1937 Katherine relocated to Baltimore, Maryland. She married the late Milton Washington. Affectionately known as Mother Kat, she had a wonderful spirit and was very family oriented. She helped to raise Katherine, Gloria, John, Purnell, a very special daughter Joyce G. Robinson and a host of nieces and nephews. She not only was a mother to her son, but also to strangers. A woman with such qualities as these definitely possessed a heart of gold. She leaves to cherish her memory: two brothers, Leonard Thompson (Margie Krell) and Abraham Thompson of Glen Burnie; one son, Golden Lee Moore, Jr. of Baltimore one daughter, Joyce Gerlette-Robinson of Richmond, Virginia; one daughter-in-law, Theresa B. Moore of Baltimore; one grandson-in-law, Kenneth Jackson; two granddaughters, Shbetta Annette Jackson of Fayetteville, North Carolina and Corgenea P.T. Byrd of Baltimore; two grandsons, Richard E. Kesler, Jr. and Roland L. Knox II, both of Baltimore; two great-grandsons, Byron Jackson and Devon Jackson of Fayetteville, North Carolina; one great-granddaughter, Kenya Jackson of Fayetteville, North Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
