

Katherine Elizabeth Venson

September 2, 1936 - December 26, 2018

Katherine Elizabeth Ragland Venson, age 82, received her wings on December 26, 2018 and peacefully moved on to her heavenly home. She was born in Richmond, Virginia on September 2, 1936, the second of two children born to the late Joe Ragland and Lizzie Bell Stovall Ragland. She was educated in the Richmond City Public Schools, graduating from Armstrong High School in 1955. She was baptized at a young age at 5th Baptist Church. Later, she found a new Christian home at Cedar Street Memorial Baptist Church of God where she served on the Usher Board and sung in the Combined Choir for many years.

Katherine met and married William Venson Jr., in 1955. Out of this union, five children were born. She worked at the Hot Shop, Curles Neck Dairy in the flour warehouse, Tucker Hospital and Johnston Willis Hospital as a nurse aide. She was then employed at McGuire Veterans Medical Center as a nurse aide, an assistant to the Medical Examiner, performing autopsies and then a cook in the kitchen where she revealed her culinary skills. Her passion and love was in helping others. Her faith in God was strong and unwavering. Taking care of her family was a number one priority.

Katherine was preceded in death by her brother, Joseph Ragland, sister-in-law Winnie Ragland; two daughters, Jacqueline Y. Venson Reed and Wilma Venson. She leaves to cherish her memory three daughters Janice M.

Venson, Wendy Venson-Crump (Daniel) and June V. Mack (Randell); five grandchildren Weldon, Lamont, Franshawn, Daniel IV and Jonae; two great-grandchildren Daniel V and Lenix and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
