

Kathleen John Wallace

February 6, 1949 - May 6, 2008

Kathleen John Wallace, daughter of the late John Jackson Cummings, Sr. and Lillabell Epps began her sojourn on February 6, 1949 and peacefully completed on May 6, 2008. As a child Kathleen was a member of Metropolitan Methodist Church. Later she became a member and was baptized at Greater Harvest Baptist Church under the pastor ship of Pastor, Errol D. Gilliard, Sr. Kathleen received her education in the Baltimore City Public School, graduating from Frederick Douglas High School in 1967. During Kathleen's high school years, she met the love of her life Ricardo R. Wallace. The high school sweethearts were wedded in holy matrimony on December 8, 1968. From this union four beautiful children were born, Marcia, Ricardo Jr., Michael and Meredith. Kathleen loved helping others. Her passion to help led her to pursue a career as a healthcare professional. She received formal training and became certified as an Operating Room Surgical Technician. This specialized training prepared her for a rewarding career in healthcare. She was employed at St. Joseph's Hospital for over 27 years and the Dulaney Eye Institute for 5 years. Kathleen was avid traveler and bowler. Her passion for bowling was so great she secured a part-time position at the Timonium Bowling Lanes where she spent most of her free time. Kathleen's life made a profound difference in the lives of those she loved. She is remembered as a caring and loving wife, mother, sister, and friend. She brought joy and sunshine to all who knew her. Kathleen's exuberance will live on in the hearts and minds of her loving children, Marcia R. Hardy, Ricardo, Michael and Meredith Wallace, one brother John J. Cummings, one sister, Lillabelle E. Butler, six loving grandchildren Marcus, Andrew, Bianca Hardy, Joslyn Coles, Balil Mcallister Jr. and James R.
