

Kathleen Matthews

May 22, 1922 - August 19, 2015

Kathleen Matthews, daughter of the late Minnie Tucker Simpson, was born on May 12, 1922 in Ridgeway, South Carolina. She departed this life on August 19, 2015 at the Future Care Charles Village nursing facility after a lengthy illness.

She was educated in the Fairfield County School System. She was employed for many years as a domestic engineer. Kathleen was a faithful member of the St. Paul Community Baptist Church and sang on the Senior Choir, the Revels Mass Choir, as well as the Vocal Choir until her health began to fail. Her faithfulness to her church extended to the fact that as she advanced in age, she had a standing order for a cab to pick her up every Sunday morning for church service.

She was married to the late Meshack Matthews, and although they had no children of their own, "Aunt Cat" and "Uncle Mack," as they were affectionately known, were loving and caring to all of their nieces and nephews, as well as their children.

"Aunt Cat" was very fashionable and loved pretty hats, pocketbooks, and shoes, and all of her outfits had to match. Although she had many obstacles in her life, she was determined to live her life to the fullest.

She leaves to mourn: one sister, Leila Moore of Ridgeway, SC; four nieces, Margaret Moses of Baltimore, MD, Frances Moore of Columbia, SC, Odessa Gibson (Sherman) and Margarie Edmunds (Thomas) all of Ridgeway, SC; five nephews, John Castleberry (Phyllis) of Hopkins, SC, Jimmy (Vireen) and Morris Moore (Mary) all of Ridgeway, SC, Damon Moore (Bernell) of Columbia, SC and Douglas Moore of Hartford, Connecticut; goddaughter, Vanessa Harmon (Rudy) of Baltimore, MD; and a host of great and great-great-nieces and -nephews, other relatives and friends.
