

Kathryn Cureton Johnston

March 12, 1937 - August 13, 2024

Kathryn Cureton Johnston was born in Greenville, South Carolina on March 12, 1937, to the late Lilly Margie Cureton and Marion Lincoln Cureton. She departed this life on August 13, 2024. Kathryn was pre-deceased in death by her parents Marion L. Cureton and Margie T. Cureton; her husband, Alva M. Johnston; her sister, Dr. Grace C. Stanford and her brother George Cureton.

Kathryn graduated from Booker T. Washington high school in Norfolk, VA in the class of 1955.

On September 7, 1971, Alva and Kathryn were united in holy matrimony. They were united for over 43 years and to this union one son was born, Alva Marc Johnston.

Kathryn worked for Aetna Insurance in New York City. Subsequently, she moved to Richmond and worked at the Department of Motor Vehicles for 30 years. She was a diligent and faithful employee. Kathryn was a kind and considerate woman. She demonstrated this via her commitment and devotion to serving her family, colleagues at work and fellow parishioners at Holy Rosary. She enjoyed cooking meals for all, working and volunteering for the Ladies Sodality. Kathryn also served as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

Kathryn leaves to remember and cherish her memory, her sister Helen Cureton (W. Hempstead, NY), sons Dale E. Morrison (Leesa) and Alva Marc Johnston, granddaughter, Kristen L. Morrison and grandson Justin M. Morrison, a host of nieces, nephews and cousins and other relatives and friends.
