

Kathy Daughtery

November 7, 1951 - November 28, 2021

"Remember me when I am gone away. Gone far away into the silent land."

The lovely Kathy Daughtery better known as "mother" was born in Baltimore, MD to the late Jackson and Odessa C. Jones on November 7, 1951. She grew up in East Baltimore and attended Baltimore City Public Schools.

Kathy worked at Future Care Cold Spring Nursing Home for over 30 year as a cook: Kathy really loved cooking and going shopping. She enjoyed being around her family, laughing and spending time with them.

She leaves to cherish her memories: four sisters Juanita Hardy, Gwendolyn Tolson-Edmond, Margaret Callum and Deborah J. Jones-Lawson preceded her in death and one brother Jack Jones who also preceded her in death: two daughters, Donna King and Keisha Woods (son in Law Nathaniel Woods): two sons: Wilbert Harris and Devin Harris, Daughter in law Aisha Harris) Three brothers-in-law: sixteen grandchildren: nine great grandchildren: best friend, Phyllis Richard: two bonus daughters, Karen Barbee & Keontye Little: A special friend who preceded her in death. Ray Redfearn and a host of other relatives and friends.
