“ My condolences to the family & friends of Mrs. Maxwell-Mitz. As we all know the pain of losing a loved one in death, there is hope. 1 Corinthians 15:57 states: "Thanks to God, for he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!" At that time, we will ask the questions found in verse 55: "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?" That enemy, death, will suffer a defeat at the hands of Jesus Christ, and this hope we can look forward to with much confidence.##imported-begin##Debbie Spann##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. It saddens us dearly when someone we love dies. However, we all can be comforted by the words that are inspired in the bible, particularly at Acts 24:15 which expresses a resurrection hope. May you all continue to find comfort and encouragement from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
